EXCLUSIVE: Mother of Kamil Pustkowski says she asked the court to lock up her child

'MY SON WAS NOT LEADER OF M9 CRASH GANG. HE WAS A LOST BOY'

THE mother of the Limerick teenager who was killed in the horror M9 crash has insisted that the 'lost boy' was not the leader of the gang that was involved in the head-on collision that also resulted in the deaths of four other young men.

Sunday, Emilia Pustkowska also revealed she appealed to a judge for her son Kamil, 17, to be placed in custody after he pleaded guilty to some offences just weeks before last weekend's crash – but the case was adjourned due to the State solicitors' strike. Kamil and four other teenagers – Jack Kennedy, 17, Jeremy O'Brien, 18, Joe Carthy, 15, and 16-year-old Alex McCarthy – died when the car in which they were travelling was driven the wrong way down
